Description

If your idea of a Myrtle Beach condo starts with being able to walk across the street and put your feet in the sand, this might be exactly what you have been looking for. Tucked into Mariner's Cove in the popular Shore Drive area of Myrtle Beach, this two bedroom, two bathroom condo puts you just across the street from the beach and right in the middle of one of the Grand Strand's most established coastal pockets. But the location is only the beginning. Step inside and the unit position immediately makes a difference, bringing additional natural light into a space that feels bright, comfortable, and easy to settle into. Updated flooring carries through the main living areas, while the kitchen features white cabinetry, updated countertops, and a tile backsplash that keeps the space feeling clean and coastal without trying too hard. The kitchen opens into the living and dining area, creating a simple, functional layout whether you are spending a quiet weekend at the beach, hosting friends and family, or using the condo as a Myrtle Beach vacation rental. Then there is the screened porch. Just off the living room, it feels tucked into the mature trees surrounding the building, giving you a peaceful place for morning coffee, an afternoon break after the beach, or an evening outside enjoying the coastal weather. Some of the less exciting updates have already been handled too. The HVAC system is only about one year old, offering peace of mind whether this becomes your personal Myrtle Beach beach retreat or part of your investment portfolio. And when you step outside, the lifestyle becomes even easier. The Mariner's Cove community pool is just a short distance from this building, while the beach and Ocean Annie's, one of Shore Drive's best known beachfront spots for live music, drinks, and oceanfront entertainment, are directly across the street. From here, you are also approximately 3 miles from Tanger Outlets and about 5 miles from Barefoot Landing, with restaurants, shopping, golf courses, grocery stores, entertainment, and everyday conveniences all within easy reach. That combination is what makes this Shore Drive condo worth a closer look. It can be a low maintenance Myrtle Beach getaway when you want to escape to the coast, a home base near the ocean, or a short term rental investment property in a location vacationers already know and love. If you have been searching for a two bedroom condo in Myrtle Beach near the beach, a Shore Drive condo for sale, or a Myrtle Beach property with short term rental potential, this Mariner's Cove end unit offers a hard-to-replicate mix of location, lifestyle, updates, and convenience. Schedule your private showing and come see what life this close to the beach could look like.
