Description

5 acres of opportunity in Pelzer! Whether you're dreaming of creating your own mini farm, building your forever home, or simply looking for room to spread out, this property offers plenty of possibilities. The property includes an existing rustic cabin that provides a great head start and is ready for someone to bring their vision and finishing touches. With a little updating, the cabin could make a charming primary residence, guest house, or potentially provide a place to stay while planning and building your dream home. The property is unrestricted and already features an existing septic system and several wells, adding even more possibilities for the next owner. The spacious acreage offers room for gardens, animals, outdoor living, workshops, and more. Enjoy the privacy and peaceful setting of country living while still being convenient to surrounding areas. Bring your ideas and imagine what you could create on these 5 beautiful acres!
