Description

109 Acres of Prime Riverfront Land with Planned Duck Pond!! Discover a rare opportunity to own 109 acres of scenic riverfront property offering both natural beauty and recreational potential. This expansive tract features direct South Edisto River frontage, providing peaceful water views, abundant wildlife, and endless possibilities for outdoor enjoyment. A duck pond is planned for the property and will include a motor, making it ideal for waterfowl habitat hunting, or simply enjoying a private retreat surrounded by nature. The combination of river access and a managed pond creates a unique setting well-suited for recreational use, investment, or the creation of a private estate. With its generous acreage, this property offers privacy, versatility, and room to bring your vision to life whether for outdoor recreation, conservation, or future development. Opportunities like this, with both river frontage and a planned water feature, are increasingly hard to find.
