Description

Welcome to Flat Creek Farm, a 105+/- acre tract in Andrews, Williamsburg County, South Carolina. The property is planted in 8-year-old loblolly pine, with a well-built interior road system providing access to the entire tract. Flat Creek runs along the rear of the property, creating a natural travel corridor for mature deer, roosting habitat for wild turkey, and seasonally flooded timber that draws wood ducks through the winter months. Adjacent agricultural fields make this a prime bedding-to-feeding transition zone for whitetail and the sign on the ground makes clear the caliber of deer this tract holds. This is an excellent property for a family looking to enjoy everything Williamsburg County has to offer.
