Description

Great opportunity to own a large tract of property, or select the portion of the total that you wish in the rural area of Loris, SC, as long as you purchase at least 3.43 acres. The current parcel totals 10.29 acres--and has been divided into 3 remaining parcels, each parcel has different dimensions but each equals approx 3.43 acres. Road frontage on Auburn Drive as well as Log Cabin Road. The survey has been recorded. The seller is open to selling one or all three parcels. See recorded survey in associated docs. Municipal Water and Sewer is available, at buyer expense. The Horry County Tax records show more acreage than the total reflected in the latest survey, and The Horry County Land Records show less acreage than the latest survey. Please see a copy of the latest survey. Listing Pictures of the road frontage and are in no particular order or based on any specific portion of the subdivided tracts.

Great opportunity to own a large tract of property, or select the portion of the total that you wish in the rural area of Loris, SC, as long as you purchase at least 3.43 acres. The current parcel totals 10.29 acres---surveyed January 2023, and has been divided into 3 remaining parcels, each parcel has different dimensions but each equals approx 3.43 acres. Road frontage on Auburn Drive as well as Log Cabin Road. The survey has not been recorded. The seller is open to selling the entire parcel, or in other configurations, as long as not subdivided into more than 3 parcels. See attached survey. Municipal Water and Sewer is available, at buyer expense. The buyer will be responsible for having the property perked for a septic system and costs of installing septic system if they elect not to use Municipal Water and Sewer that is available. The Horry County Tax records show more acreage than the total reflected in the latest survey, and The Horry County Land Records show less acreage than the latest survey. Please see a copy of the latest survey. Listing Pictures of the road frontage and are in no particular order or based on any specific portion of the subdivided tracts.
