Description

Discover the limitless potential of this expansive 44.5-acre tract located on Rustwood Drive in Georgetown, South Carolina! Zoned for agricultural use and blanketed with established timber, this property offers a rare opportunity to secure a significant piece of land that balances natural beauty with versatile utility. Whether you are seeking a private, sprawling homestead away from the bustle of city life, a productive agricultural venture, or a long-term timber investment, this parcel provides the foundational space to bring your vision to life. The land's generous acreage and agricultural designation make it an ideal canvas for a variety of pursuits, from sustainable farming and equestrian facilities to a secluded recreational retreat for outdoor enthusiasts. Beyond its functional utility, the property's natural landscape offers unparalleled privacy and a peaceful atmosphere that is increasingly hard to find. Investing in this land means securing a legacy asset in a prime South Carolina location, offering the perfect blend of quiet rural living and the flexibility to develop the property exactly as you envision. The land is also conveniently located near some of the Myrtle Beach area's finest dining, shopping, golf, and entertainment options. Don't wait, schedule your showing today!
