Description

1.44-acre parcel located in Dillon County, South Carolina, offering a great opportunity for those looking to build or invest. The property is partially cleared, providing a head start for construction while still maintaining some natural surroundings for privacy. With no HOA, this lot offers flexibility for a variety of uses, including a primary residence, manufactured home, or investment property (buyer to verify zoning and permitted uses). Conveniently located with easy access to nearby towns, yet tucked away enough to enjoy a quiet, rural setting. Priced to sell or with best offer, this is an affordable opportunity to own land in a growing area. Property will require septic system.
