Description

97-acres of established hunting ground just outside of downtown Edgefield! This exceptional recreational property is ready to enjoy from day one, featuring an established internal road system and multiple pastures/food plots that provide excellent access for hunting, wildlife management, and outdoor recreation. Mature pines offer both beauty and future investment potential, while hardwoods are mixed throughout with a creek bottom as the rear boundary of the property. With two potential homesites towards the front of the property, there is ample opportunity to build a secluded cabin, hunting lodge, or permanent residence. Gated access ensures privacy and security, making this an ideal getaway for sportsmen, outdoor enthusiasts, or anyone looking to own a large tract of land. Whether you're hunting, riding ATVs, managing timber, or building your dream home in the woods, this property offers the rare combination of usability, privacy, and long-term value.
