Description of property at 23 Conwell Street:

Welcome to The Sinclair, a boutique townhome community just steps from downtown Greenville's West End. These 12 luxury townhomes provide the perfect blend of urban living and modern architecture, featuring a combination of cement siding, brick and wood tones. Each home boasts a spacious open floor plan with nine foot ceilings, oversized windows that flood the space with natural light, a thoughtfully designed kitchen, and a large private balcony for outdoor living. The kitchens equipped with stainless steel appliances, including a slide-in gas range, large islands with bar seating, and a stylish tile backsplash. A private off of Anderson Street provides access to each home's garage, and a centrally located landscaped common area connects all 12 units. Don't miss the chance to have downtown at your doorstep!
