Description of property at 110 Destiny Lane:

Unique property with endless potential! 110 Destiny Lane sits on just over 4 acres of private cleared and wooded land with a trickling creek, chicken and goat pen, and room to make it everything you've ever dreamed of! The perfect opportunity to live separately under the same roof! Multigenerational living. Off the grid living. Rental or Airbnb. Single family living with just a few changes. The home is joined together by a common wall with each side boasting its own full kitchen, living space, bedroom, full bath and laundry area. The home is filled with natural light both from the slider doors leading to the private decks and the skylights. You will find hardwood floors throughout the home as well as vaulted ceilings, beams and wood accents that lend to the woody feeling of the property. All appliances convey with the home and most are brand new! The peaceful outdoor living space offers a screen porch on each side, deck, cleared and fenced area for pets, chicken and goat pen, and lush woods full of deer and birds. Wander down to the creek and dip your feet in and then relax and listen to the trickling water. With so much land and no HOA there is room to add a workshop or pool, more animals and a fabulous garden! Located off the beaten path but just a short drive to downtown Honea Path and Ware Shoals, and close to major roadways this unique property gives you the serene lifestyle you've been craving without sacrificing everyday conveniences. This is a must see!
