Description of property at 3005 Little Creek Drive:

Come see this completely updated almost new home with plenty of room to roam. The open floor plan is an entertainer's dream or perfect for family time. In the kitchen you will find all new appliances, granite countertops and a gorgeous hood vent that gives it that "wow" factor. Guests can pull up a stool to chat while you cook, or the kids can work on homework and still spend time together. The kitchen also has an eat-in area for intimate family meals on one side, and an area for more formal dining on the other. So many possibilities in the large common area - there is space for a den and formal living area, or one big open family room. A sunroom extends the living area with an open pass-through window to the kitchen making entertaining a breeze. The hall bath has a granite counter with double sinks making it ideal for sharing. Two closets in the hall, plus a coat closet in the entry provide plenty of storage. The backyard is completely fenced in with a wood privacy fence - perfect for your furry family or young children. Walk out of the sunroom door to a concrete patio where you can enjoy grilling out or relaxing with a cool beverage. Follow the steppingstones from the patio to another entertaining area complete with a firepit and Adirondak chairs ready to enjoy cool evenings. The laundry room has entry from the kitchen or garage - convenient if you get dirty working in the yard. Concord, McCants and TL Hanna schools in a great location.
