Description of property at 715 Twilight Court:

Welcome to sun and fun on Lake Keowee! This charming retreat with a comfortable blend of lake use and functionality, with a view of the water from your back porch and easy accessibility to the shore. Boasting a spacious, open lot with gentle grass slope for ease of outdoor play, the outside is welcoming to the entire family. Inside, discover an inviting open floor plan, with natural light flooding the space through floor to ceiling windows. The living area flows into the combined kitchen and dining area, ideal for entertaining friends and family. The highlight of this property is the expansive porch. Whether sipping morning coffee soaking in the sounds of nature or unwinding through quiet evenings, this porch is exactly what every lake getaway should have. The open kitchen offers stainless appliances, quartz counters and a lake view from the entire backside of the property. The convenient floorplan features two bedrooms on the main level, a third bedroom on the terrace plus an alternate bunk room for added guest overflow. The terrace offers a newly finished basement that expands the living space even further. A second lakeview pea gravel patio grants lake views from the third bedroom and the recreation room. A yard that easily accommodates fencing, patios, and endless possibilities to enjoy lake views each and every day. The love of Lake Keowee can be felt as you drive through the Keowee Cove neighborhood. Just outside the back door of the property is the community lakeside picnic pavilion, boat launch, day slip, volleyball, playground and more. Keowee Cove Covenants and Restrictions have no restrictions for VRBO, Airbnb or short term rentals. Start using the lake today at an affordable price... welcome home to 715 Twilight Court on Lake Keowee!
