Description of property at 109 Tupelo Brg Drive:

evans Bestimated completion OctoberThis beautiful home has a very traditional look with tons of windows. This home is 4 bedrooms and 2.5 bathrooms. Walking through the front door leads you to the foyer and your living room. This is a great area to work from home or just to sit and read. After you pass this area, there is a dining room which opens up to the family room so you can use various sizes of furniture in either space. The family room has windows facing the back of the home allowing ample light to come in. The kitchen is very large with lots of counterspace, an island and room for a breakfast table. There is a great nook for a hutch and china. The pantry in this home is a must see and so much space...go ahead and buy at Costco!Up the stairs leads to a loft area. This is great for a reading area for school work, video games, read nook or even book shelves. The laundry room is a good size. There are 3 secondary rooms that share a bathroom upstairs. The owners suite is in the back of the home and has a huge walk in closet. The owners bathroom has a gorgeous tub andshower with tile surround and dual sinks.
