Description of property at 840 Brittlebank Road:

Welcome to your own piece of paradise in Walterboro, SC, where tranquility and serenity await on 1.7 acres of land. This beautiful brick ranch home has been completely renovated to offer modern comfort and style. Step inside to discover a newly rejuvenated space with a new roof, electrical system, plumbing, and HVAC. The open floor plan features a cozy brick fireplace in the living room, a brand new kitchen with a center island and ample counter space, seamlessly connected to a spacious dining area perfect for hosting guests. The expansive family room provides endless possibilities--it can accommodate a pool table, a large sectional couch, and still have space for additional entertainment equipment or even be transformed into a gym or a cozy man cave for football season... [Cont'd] An office adjacent to the family room offers flexibility and could serve as an extra guest bedroom if needed. Outside, a brand new carport with a storage room adds convenience. With plenty of room for expansion, envision creating your dream workshop or multi-car garage on this generous property. Embrace the potential and make this renovated Walterboro home your own private haven.
