Description of property at 269 Jackson Street:

Welcome home to Lakeview Commons! The perfect place for those who desire the comforts of home ownership without the hassle of exterior maintenance! This end unit "Garfield" floor plan features a downstairs master bedroom, a spacious living room plus an impressive eat-in kitchen complete with a pantry and opens up into the dining area. The large, round-top window bathes the kitchen in natural light and the ample cabinet and counter space make it perfect for any Chef! The dining area, which is located between the kitchen and the living room, is perfect for hosting gatherings or relaxing after a long day. The vaulted ceilings in the living area make this space feel both cozy and spacious at the same time. The generously sized owner's suite is just off the living room, and comes complete with a full en suite bathroom with dual vanities + a large walk-in closet. Upstairs you'll find another full bathroom with dual vanities and 2 more spacious bedrooms with walk-in closets. The front bedroom overlooks the street and features a cute window cubby which is perfect for a reading nook or study area. There's also a covered patio located out back, accessible through the living room, and with the convenience of town home living you'll be able to enjoy the outdoors without having to worry about mowing the yard, or pressure washing the house. The side entrance to this end-unit offers an extra level of privacy, and the one car garage, and large driveway provide plenty of space for additional parking. The neighborhood playground and pool which are located near the Lakeview Commons entrance are just a few of the amenities you and your family will surely enjoy as a resident of this quiet community. Spacious rooms, ample natural lighting, and a well designed floor plan make this town home an ideal choice. The monthly regime covers outside building maintenance and insurance on the exterior as well as access and maintenance of the pool, lawn maintenance + termite bond. Get back to enjoying your weekends! Book your showing today!
