Description of property at 1813 Towne Street:

Welcome home to 1813 Towne St and The Cottages of Johns Island, a beautiful neighborhood in the heart of Johns Island. Upon entering this home, you will immediately be drawn to the gleaming bamboo floors throughout the main level. The living room is very spacious and open to the kitchen which is perfect for entertaining your friends and family. The galley style kitchen has granite counters, gorgeous backsplash, large pantry, gas range, new microwave and eat-in breakfast area. Tired of being stuck indoors? Enjoy your private fenced in backyard, that backs up to woods and wetlands, and oversized patio that makes a great spot for the grillmaster in the family. The downstairs primary bedroom has crown molding and the bathroom is equipped with huge walk in closet, dual sinks, newly installed plank floors, garden tub, walk in shower, and linen closet. Upstairs you will find a loft, that currently serves as an office space and 3 ample sized bedrooms with walk-in closets and ceiling fans. The walking trail in the neighborhood is located right across the street and features a pond view, park benches and playground. Walk to the Wild Olive Restaurant and The Royal Tern is just down the street. Kiawah Island, Seabrook and Folly Beach are located within 25 minutes and perfect places to enjoy a staycation. Other features include electric privacy fence gate, detached garage, internal wiring system, and energy efficiently built home. This is the home you have been looking for - the only thing missing is YOU!
