RULES ENFORCEMENT

Rules violations are to be reported to the Board of Directors or the Management Company. The complaint will be investigated as soon as possible. If the report of violation is accurate, written notice will be sent to the owner. The first notice of the violation will be regarded as a warning, unless otherwise stipulated in the Association rules. If after (7) days the violation is not cleared or is repeated, a Penalty & Enforcement Fee will be levied against the owner as follows until the violation is cleared. The fine for violations is $10.00 per day (for violations of a continuing nature) and $50 (for each occurrence of a violation). The daily fines will continue until the Association is notified in writing that the violation is corrected. Vehicles parked on the property in violation of the covenants are subject to the daily fine and/or will be towed at the vehicle owners expense.

ADOPTED this 12 day of JUNE, 2007.
